

Take Time Inside a Lullaby

Take time inside a lullaby
No need to keep you from your sleep
What waits for you will not pass by

Hush little darling don't you cry
With Ally-bally and Bo-peep
Take time inside a lullaby

Before we meet a butterfly
We'll watch the caterpillars creep
What waits for you will not pass by

So sing of clouds and silver sky
And count the leaping, dancing sheep
Take time inside a lullaby

You may be brave or wild or shy
The path demanding, soft, or steep
What waits for you will not pass by

Right now, let's drop the how and why
The dreams you dream are yours to keep
Take time inside a lullaby
What waits for you will not pass by
